This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. TO

Mrs. SARAH WILSON,

AND

Mrs. FRANCES WILSON,

Daughters of THOMAS WILSON, late of Stratford-Bow in the County of Middlesex, Esq;

PERMIT me, Ladys, after the Honour I have had of assisting you in the Arts of Writing and Numbring, to furnish you with one Help more, to further your Improvement in the Art of Spelling our Mother Tongue. I have heard the Want of this excellent Accomplishment sorely lamented by the Fair Sex; but indeed, there are Multitudes of our own Sex, to my knowledge, that are every whit as deficient in this Qualification, as the Ladys; and therefore I see no Reason to lay the Fault too heavy on that side, tho' the censorious World be apt to do it. But here I have provided a sufficient Remedy, I hope, for this Def

Defect in both Sexes, and dare very much enc rage my ſelf, that your Acceptance of Work in the firſt place, will ſtir up many, b to the Approbation and induſtrious Uſe of i

It is neceſſary in Gratitude, Ladys, befo conclude this, to acknowledge many Favo conferr'd upon my ſelf and Family by y
good Honoured Mother; whoſe prudent ord ing her Family, tender Care of her Child
juſt Affection to one of the kindeſt of Husba (whilſt living) join'd with her Charity to Poor, and courteous Demeanor to all Perſo
ſet her upon a Level (at leaſt) with the moſt luable Matrons, and render her Example high worth the Imitation of others.

May your whole Family be long bleſs'd w hes Health and Proſperity; may your ſel live to be comfortably diſpos'd of in the Wor and become the happy Inſtruments of increaſi the Number of thoſe who ſhall be Saved; a may I yet have the Honour and Satisfaction being eſteemed,

LADYS,

Your moſt obliged and devoted Servan

PREFACE.

TO find ſo general a Defect in the Orthography of our Mother Tongue, among Perſons otherwiſe well accompliſh'd, is a Diſparagement to us among Foreigners, and implies, either the Supineneſs of the People in applying themſelves to obtain this Qualification, or the Want of proper Helps to make the Way eaſy to it. Where the former of theſe is the Caſe, I deſpair of remedying it any further than the bounds of my ſmall Province extend: If the latter, the World is Witneſs how zealouſly I have contributed my Mite to the Public Treaſury of Engliſh Learning. My ſmall Manual, called, A Guide to the Engliſh Tongue, has met with ſuch Succeſs and Encouragement, as far exceed my Expectation, and even my Ambition: Witneſs the many Editions of it, in the few Years ſince its firſt Publication, and divers kind Letters of Approbation from Perſons intirely unknown to me, in the ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom. However, I have been made ſenſible by the Repreſentation of divers good Friends, that a further and more general Help was neceſſary for the Improvement and Completion of a Work ſo Uſeful and Beneficial to the greateſt part of my Countrey-men. And tho' I ſhou'd have been glad to ſee ſuch a Performance ſtamp'd with the Author[illegible] of ſome Perſon of Diſtinction, both to give it a better Face, and to render it the more acceptable; yet in Defect of that, I have been prevail'd upon to go thro' this Work, and now (ſuch as it is) to preſent the Public with it.

And I muſt take the Liberty to tell the Critics, that this Collection has been a Task of more Pains than they may imagine; the Dictionarys now extant being commonly either irregular, or wanting many neceſſary Words, or abounding with Words obſolete, or with ſuch Terms of Art, as ought to be handled ſeparately by a Maſter in thoſe Faculties, wherein they are uſed. I have been at the Pains alſo to compare foreign Words with their Originals, in order to fix the right Spelling of them; and in that Search I have diſcover'd, that our Language, over and beſides what it owes to the Ancients, is much indebted to the Italian, but more abundantly to the French, which I attribute to the Norman Conqueſt. However, it's plain, tho' this Borrowing from foreign Languages is, for the moſt part, both an Ornament and Enrichment to our own; yet it renders our Spelling the more difficult, inaſmuch as many of thoſe Words are now politely ſounded after the foreign way, which is very different from that harſh and uncertain Method, whereby the Engliſh is pronounced.

I beg leave to inſert a few Particulars neceſſary for the Peruſers of this Book, and I'll have done.

1. The Participles in (ed) and (ing) are generally omitted, becauſe they would ſwell the Book too much, and they are eaſily formed from the Verb it ſelf; as, mark, marked, marking; learn, learned, learning. Only mind, if the Verb have (e) final, that (e) muſt be left out; as approve, approved, approving.

proving. If any be not formed in this manner, they are inſerted in their proper places; as, give, given; bind, bound.

2. For the ſame Reaſon alſo, Comparatives in (er), and Superlatives in (eſt) are left out, thoſe Endings being eaſy to be annexed, by Perſons of the meaneſt Capacity; as, kind, kinder, kindeſt; ſlow, ſlower, ſloweſt. The Irregulars may be found in their order: and (e) alſo muſt be cut off; as, brave, braver, braveſt.

3. By the leave of my good Friends, the Printers, and Correctors of the Preſs, I would propoſe not to uſe many Letters in a Word, when fewer may do as well. Hence (ck) need not be together in the end of ſuch borrow'd Words, as, concentric, Lyric, magnetic: but I retain it in all Engliſh Words for Antiquity's ſake. One (l) may commonly ſerve at the End of a Word, as well as two; ſo I hope the Liberty I have taken that way may be pardonable. I think alſo, that (e) final may be left out, when it does not lengthen a ſyllable; as in doctrine, rapine, humane, handſome, &c. which may better and more expeditiouſly be written, doctrin, rapin, human, handſom.

4. 'Tis a good old Engliſh Cloſer of Nouns, Verbs and Adverbs; but I obſerve, 'tis cuſtomary to change it into (i) when any further ending is added; as, heavy, heavily, heavier, heavieſt, heavineſs. Yet a Verb keeps it to a Participle in (ing) only; as levy, levying, levied; bury, burying, burial, buried. Yet the Compounds of fie keep (ie) as, crucifie magnifie.

5. There are ſome Words ſounded ſo differently from their Letters, that I think the beſt way would be to ſpell them by the Ear. For Inſtance, I approve theſe Words, Count, account, accountant, gage, gager, Lievtenant, skeptic, skeleton, rather than Compt, accompt, accomptant, gauge, gauger, Lieutenant, ſceptic, ſceleton, as they are commonly written.

6. Latin Subſtantives in (-or) become Engliſh ones in (-our); tho' I think that (u) to be unneceſſary, becauſe, when the Word increaſes, it drops; as humour, humoriſt, humorſom.

But to propoſe my ſingle Opinion againſt the public Vogue, I muſt confeſs, is a hazardous Enterprize; for Cuſtom will bear a Man down, unleſs he find a good Number of Candid Friends to ſupport him. To ſuch I commit my Cauſe, ſo far as they ſhall think reaſonable to defend it, and ſhall always be glad of their kind Admonitions; but, for fear I may already have exceeded my Bounds, I ſhall offer no more Remarks at preſent.

The Peruſer may only mind, that if there be no Accent over any Word, it is either a Monoſyllable, and needs none, or elſe it belongs to the firſt Letter of the Word, which, if it be a Capital, cannot conveniently be accented in the Way of Printing.

A DICTIONARY of all the WORDS, Commonly us'd in the Engliſh Tongue; with Accents directing to their true Pronunciation.
